

Gray wolf

Once there was a wolf pup named Alpha. Alpha was an Alaskan tundra wolf that was as silver as the moon but also as white as the ground of antarctica and with eyes of blue pure energy.

He has a keen sense of hunting that was dangerous for any prey that meets eye to eye with this wolf.

He hunted with his father for small prey and as years passed the gray wolf would find a wolf named Delta a Hokkaido wolf. She was gentle to people but fierce when needed.

The two wolves became family. Delta and Alpha had three pups the first one was named Opal, the second was named Kitchi, and the last pup being a mix of Alaskan tundra wolf and a Hokkaido wolf.

This wolf had a combined mix of extreme qualities being extreme agility, extreme stealth in winter, flawlessly perfect senses, extremely razor sharp teeth that would soon be one foot in height making this wolf pup to be more than a wolf, he would soon be an apex predator. The pups name Apex.

But as Alpha was taking care of his family, he was departed from them and was scared for Apex, he hadn't got to hunt with Alpha yet because the three pups took turns hunting.

Alpha hadn't eaten for six weeks that had pass because to him, his family was his first and most important priority.

The following day Alpha started to hunt for smaller prey, so he wouldn't starve and as he hunted the deer, cattle, and other prey he could fit in his jaw full of razors and four daggers of teeth he has.

He stumbled across a wolf named Beta an arctic wolf whose rank is Beta/Delta who had lost her family as well as her home in Antarctica by explorers that caught her then took her back too Alaska where the explorers came.

"You lost," Alpha inquired.

"No," Beta replied.

They hunted together, slept together, and saved each other one or two times. A few weeks after Alpha found Beta, and they went looking for Alpha's family, so he would be with Delta his loved one.

After they had ate, a full moon had risen.

"Awooooooooooooooooooooo," howled Alpha.

"Awooooooooooooooooooooo," howled Beta.

“Awoooooooooooooooooo,” howled a third wolf at a high-pitched followed by three more.

Three minutes after the howling Alpha just stood still thinking in his mind he knew that the fourth howl was northwestern wolf howl that was high but faint as if it was a pup, the fifth wolf howl was an Alaskan wolf pup.

The sixth wolf howl was high pitch howl that was both an Alaskan tundra wolf and a Hokkaido wolf that sounded gentle but also fierce like.....

“APEX,” yelped Alpha jolting to where the howls came from at full speed of forty miles per hour to return to his loved one Delta.

When he finally arrived instead of three wolf pups there were three female wolves the first named Snow an Arctic wolf, second named Alaska an Alaskan tundra third named Coral an Hudson bay wolf.

Three male wolves, first was named Scout a Greenland wolf, second named Astro a Labrador wolf, and third named Silver an Arctic wolf.

Three male pups, first named Omega a Hokkaido wolf, second named Artemis a Labrador wolf, and the third named Nova an Arctic wolf, two female pups, the first named Velvet an Iberian wolf and Sapphire a Greenland wolf.

As soon as Alpha saw this he lowered his head in sadness then walked away slowly, but it was now winter with a foot of snow where Alpha was.

Delta the oldest female wolf heard Alpha walking in the snow, Alpha was trying to not make too much snow crunch.

Delta didn't realize who was walking away but in an instant Apex dashed to Alpha biting on Alphas neck and pulling in the opposite direction his father was walking in and howled.

"DAD," yelped Apex. Alpha turned to see who it was and was filled with happiness and excitement when he saw Apex who was now five years of age with his six brothers and five sisters all meeting their father for the first time in their life.

In the middle of all the joy and happiness Alpha remembered Beta then started to run toward where he just came from. Then every wolf followed Alpha and found Beta fatally wounded but alive.

"Nooooooooo," Alpha yelled, "We need to shelter her,"

The wolves then started to burrow into the ground to make a shelter for Beta. When it was finished Delta and Alpha helped Beta walk to the den to recover.

Two months passed by, Beta was now fully recovered, then she followed the wolf tracks that started where she lied when she was wounded, she found Alpha, his family and his pack, Beta then saw that Alpha was the Alpha wolf of the pack.

Two months passed when Alpha was attacked by a tundra wolf named Luna. When Luna stroke she slashed with her paw and kept striking with no counter strike from Alpha but finally sneaked up to Alpha then got pawed by Alpha that was in a good mood to see the wolf Luna.

Three minutes later the two got attacked by a Hudson bay wolf named Hunter, both Luna and Alpha were happier.

“Hunter,” Luna and Alpha exclaimed.

The three wolves were all brothers and sister so Alpha had them join the pack. The full pack hunted, ate, and slept together, so they would be safe.

The following day Alpha was attacked by an “old friend/brother” Night hunter, an Alexander Archipelago wolf with eyes the color of mercury and gashes all over him.

“You were always the pitiful of us always falling behind,”

“I could easily take you and I'm the one who is pity when you are trying to wipe out our kind you are disgrace to the name wolf,” Alpha snarled back.

One minute later Hunter emerged from the dense tundra snow and slashed his wicked icon of evil brother in attempt to kill him.

“AHH Hunter nice to see you to” snarled Night hunter. In a matter of seconds both Alpha and Hunter were bleeding before Apex fended Night hunter back from which he came.

“Hunter, find as many wolves ranked as a hunter, he will be back no doubt about that,” demanded Alpha.

“On it,” replied Hunter.

“Delta, Beta take the pups somewhere safe,” pleaded Alpha

After everyone went to do their jobs Alpha started to burrow underground shelter to hide in and ambush Night hunter for if he comes back.

When Hunter returned no one was with him. “No one is out there to recrute,” explained Hunter.

“Ok, get in,” Alpha requested, “you’ll be safer,”

“Long time no see eh,” Ares asked. Ares was a Greenland wolf.

“All of you, Night hunter is back and here to kill all of us but if we get in to this shelter and block off the entrance, we could take him,” explained Alpha.

Every one entered and hid then waited. While they waited a pack of Hudson bay wolves ran on the shelter and made it collapse on the wolf pack. As Delta and Beta were taking the pups far away, Night hunter was stalking them.

“Ok,” They all replied. So they went and found them but Night hunter behind them, so they fended him away for now.

“We need to anchor down for now,” Alpha yelped.

It quickly turned to night and so they all huddled as the two wolves Kitchi and Hunter stood guard. There was a voice not loud like an Iberian wolf the snow started to crunch but as soon as the figures came clearer but “no one attacked” they just disappear in a cloud of snow flurries.

The next morning, Night hunter was waiting for Alpha and the pack to wake, he had five wolves with him. When they woke it went from peace to war in an instant.

“Ok if you want kill my pack you have to kill me first, and mom and dad are watching us so make your move,” Alpha yelled.

“Ok,” Night hunter replied.

He went for Alpha’s head with his eight inch claws but was hit to the side by Apex, then Hunter and Luna slashed both sides of Night hunter causing him to bleed covering the snowy ground with blood.

They retreated and left Night hunter behind.

“Hunter go track them down,” commanded Alpha

“Please I surrender please spare my life,” Night hunter pleaded in pain.

“Give me one good reason I shouldn’t kill you” inquired Alpha

“No you are a demon from hades and I’m gonna no he’s gonna put you where you belong dog,” Alpha snarled back. “All yours Apex”

Apex charged at full speed to kill Night hunter.

“I didn’t want to, they made me they made me do it they were going to kill me,” Night hunter cried.

“Stop Apex,” commanded Alpha. “Who made you do what,”

“He’s right there” explained Night hunter pointing at Hunter as he walked up. “He’s not Hunter it’s a demon,”

“That’s right and you failed so prepare to die,” a disoriented voice called out as a devilish creature emerged and charged at Night hunter at inhuman speeds.

Then out of nowhere Hunter jolted at the demon and banish it back to hades from which it came.

“Hunter it’s ok,” Luna told hunter. “He was force to kill us by a devilish creature that you just banish,”

“Ok let’s just shelter Night hunter cause we should be safe for now,” Alpha requested. They built a shelter for all of them. The demon was stalking them from the shadows planning another attack.

The time I was thinking to myself I’m dead but it was one maybe two hours before I came to. I never wanted to kill them I was forced to. They were going to kill me if I didn’t, I was never bad.

“I’m dead, I’m dead,” I shouted.

“Not yet,” my brother Alpha replied.

“Where am I?” I questioned, oh yay if haven’t figured out my name it’s Night hunter.

“You’re safe ok, do you remember anything in the last three hours?”

Alpha asked me.

“No nothing all I know is your Alpha, he’s Hunter, and she’s Luna,” I responded and that was the truth.

“Nothing nothing at all are you sure?” Alpha asked.

“No I’m telling the truth what’s going on, and why am I bleeding,” I questioned.

“Don’t worry about it all you need to know is that you’re safe,” he ensured me.

I didn’t believe him because I did remember him telling Apex to kill me. He was my brother so I trusted him a little bit but I was still weary about him.

“You’re my brother right?” I asked.

“Yes I’m your brother you just tried killing us so you wouldn’t be killed,” Alpha explained. I believed him I didn’t know what to say so I rest my head on the snowy ground and went to sleep.

“Night hunter wake up, please wake up, don’t die on me, I don’t want you to die” Alpha yelled.

“What?!?” I asked in pain.

“Never do that again,” he replied

“Never do what again?” I asked.

“You fell asleep for five hours you could have not woken up,” he cried.

“Goodness I am sorry I was in so much pain and was very tired that i fell asleep,” I ensured him.

A few weeks had passed and I was recovered and remembered some stuff that went down like who harmed me a demon.

The pack started to run south so I ran with and it appears that we were hunting deer that was roaming around.

“Ok there enough of all of us to have one so make sure you kill your deer,” Alpha explained. I went in for my kill, I sunk my teeth into the flesh of the deer.

“Yum,” I blurted out, but it was good.

“Ummmm. What?” the entire pack asked.

“Nothing,” I replied. Everyone got food. The deer were all gone and eaten.

I remembered that I had my family on the ground bleeding.

“No no no no no no,” I shouted.

“What is it?” Alpha asked.

“I’m remembering stuff I did to you three,” I replied. nn

“Like what?” Alpha asked.

“Like making you fly to the ground and bleed,” I Replied

The following day my friends returned to help me but I killed them. They thought I was their friend i hated those idiots to the point of needing to restrain myself from killing them.

“I never did like them you know I hated those idiots to the point of needing to restrain myself from killing them,” I commented.

“You always were hanging out with them though,” Alpha, Luna and, Hunter all replied.

“Ya well they were getting on my nerves,” I replied.

“Okay but you just killed t---” Alpha tried to say them.

“Yay well they’re not in this pack,” I replied.

“Well true” Alpha replied.

I hated them they are mean as heck okay they were rude cussers They forced me to be their friends. The worst wolves ever and I mean it they were killers.

“They deserved to die they were killers” I commented.

Why I killed them I hated them. They forced to kill one of my actual friends. Forced me to be their friend. The worst wolves ever and I mean it they were killers.

“They deserved to die they were killers” I commented.

Why I killed them, I hated them. They forced to kill one of my actual friends. Forced me to be their friend. They were stupid.

“They made me kill someone” I told them.

“NOOOOOOOOOO” I cried.

“OPAL NOOOOOOOOO” Beta cried

The demon took Opal and Apex and wounded Alpha. They didn’t know about Apex until a minute later.

“Wait where’s Apex?” I asked.

“NOOOOOOOOO” my brother screamed in pain. “We need to summon that demon back NOW!” The pack drew a pentagram.

“Where am I” I asked.

“My name is Apex if you didn’t know.” I continued.

“IN HELL” answered a Demon from hell.

I don't like here in hell it's bloody and scary i want to go home but can't

"Opal wake up we're in hell!" I woke her up

"WHAT!" Opal asked.

"We're in hell" I told her.

MEANWHILE on earth

"What the hell." Beta cried.

"I need to know what all you know Night hunter". Asked Beta

"I didn't do anything let's just save Alpha" Night hunter told her.

10 months had pass and Alpha is recovered and ready to kill the demon for once and for all.

"Ok I'm ready to kill him" Alpha said.

"Ok" they all replied cowardly.

The demon had appeared with the two wolf pups.

"You for the two" the demon screamed.

"Ok!" Alpha cried.

He tried to kill Alpha but my pack stopped him before he died. Fatally wounded.

"No-" Alpha tried to say no but passed out.

"Alpha, ALPHA, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no!" Night hunter cried. "No Brother,"

"Tell Apex I love him," Alpha mumbled.

APEX your dad told me to tell you he loves you!" Night hunter cried.

"Is he going to live?" I asked

I don't know he looks pretty bad."

No I thought noo he can't die he can't. Why did this happen why god why.

"NOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!"

Dad was dead what do I to live for. I wish I was dead

"No!" I shouted.

"What" my dad asked.

"Alpha?" I cried.

"Yes" he promised.

"You're alive?" I asked.

"Always" he replied.

I way lucky very lucky to have my dad back. His name is Alpha. He is the best wolf ever.

"I love you dad," I ensured him.

"I know , I know," he told me, "but OWWW"

"Sorry" I cried.

"It's okay" he said, "it still hurts."

The snow was blood stained where he lied. He was an alaskan tundra wolf that was fifty years old. I'm twenty.

"You're still bleeding," I cried in tears.

"I know," he said

"Hey little guy" Night hunter said

"Hay uncle Night hunter," I said.

Got you pretty good did he big guy, man, does it still hurt?" he asked.

"Yes and yes," my dad said.

Three months later

Hi my name is opal.

"Wroof wroof," I barked as a demon flew by.

"What is it girl," dad said

"I saw a hellish demon fly by," I said

"Ok, everyone, the demon is back,"

Everybody started to defend Night hunter and Alpha.

"Where?" Kitichi asked.

"There," I said as it swooped down to kill Alpha.

"No" my brother Apex yelled, "not again"

I killed him I had to.

“Bah” the demon screamed he went back to hell as the pack praised apex. “Master they defeated me”

“Fine I’ll kill them myself.” the devil screamed.

1 month later

“Alpha!” the devil screamed, “I’ll will take you with me to hell”

“No,” said Alpha.

“AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH” the devil screamed.

“Nooooo” I said.

“We need to go to hell and save alpha” Night hunter commanded.

“Ok” we all replied.

10 years ago

“Dads not coming back” Delta cried.

“Yes yes he is” I said

Now

“No not again” i cried

We went to hell it was my second time here. We saw the devil running with alpha, he was big red with a blood stained coat covered with skulls and bones two crimson horns and a long snappy tail.

“There,” I cried

“Ok get him” Hunter said.

We jumped on him and tore and tore into his skin and a gold milky substance came running down his back. He fell to the ground in pain

“NOOOOOOOOOO” He cried.

“Thanks guys” Alpha said.

“No thi----” kitchi said

Now I will kill y--.

Alpha was now engulfed in energy “NOOOOOOOOOOOO” he shouted. He slashed hacked attacked the devil.

“Yes” the devil cried. Alpha was about to die before opal ranked healer healed him, then Apex jumped into the devil’s face and said

“Why do you want us dead?”

“I don’t I want him dead” the devil replied.

“Not happening.” Apex shouted as he ripped the devil’s face off and caused him to fall and turn into tartarus the god of tartarus from deep below Night hunter regretted everything he did and slayed tartarus with alpha and apex slashing as lava drained from tartarus and they slayed him.

“NOOOOOO” tartarus cried.

Alpha drew a celtic cross and was returned to earth.
